Hey guys,

here's the boss and paperpin from their secret shelter, where we're working hard on our coverage about The Sims 3 University Life!

As announced, we attended a very special event about University Life last Friday and it's now time to recollect all the things we saw and tried and that you'll be able to play in less than a month!

... but just not yet!

We are currently under an embargo and we'll publish our article sometime this week... stay tuned! ;)
